APPLICANT SCREENING POLICES & PROCEDURES

Units Available _____

Applications pending _____

If left blank, at least one unit is available and no previously accepted application currently under consideration have been accepted.

Applicant (Anyone 18 years & over) should read the following to determine if the requirements can be met before submitting an application. Applicant shall provide a picture identification at the time of application.

Owner/Agent is requiring payment of an Applicant Screening Charge $45 (cash or money order) none of which is refundable unless the Owner/Agent does not screen the applicant.

Application Process

- We offer an application form to everyone.
- We review completed applications in the order in which we receive them.
- We may require up to 7 days to verify information on an application.
- If we are unable to verify information on an application, the application may be denied.

Owner/Agent may obtain a credit report, or a tenant screening report which generally consists of::

- Credit history including credit report
- Public records, including but not limited to judgements, liens, evictions and status of collections accounts
- Current obligations and credit ratings; and/or Criminal records or other information verification
- Criminal History

Applicant has the right to dispute the accuracy of any information provided to the Owner/Agent by a screening service or credit reporting agency. An incomplete application may cause delays or result in denial of tenancy.

Behavior and demeanor during the application process is strongly considered. Incomplete, illegible, inaccurate, falsified information may cause rejection of application.

Applicant shall provide verifiable current and previous 3 year rental and employment history. All sources of employment or non employment shall be verifiable. Stability and the source and the amount of income during the past 2 years is considered. Combined gross income shall be at least 3 times the rent. Insufficient income may result in the denial of your application. Students may be required to provide verification of student loans and other sources of income.

Applicant must provide the information necessary to contact past landlords. We attempt to verify information twice and notify the applicant when the application is processed. If unsuccessful (in either case) we consider the next application.

Credit worthiness may be determined from a credit report. An applicant's credit history should reflect prudent payment history and be free from evictions, judgments, and bankruptcies in last 5 years.

Arrests and convictions may be evaluated. Convictions involving in a crime against another person, drug related, a sex offense, a crime involving financial fraud, or another crime that would adversely affect the property of the landlord or a tenant or the health, safety, or right to the peaceful enjoyment of the premises of residents, the landlord or landlords' agent may be denied.

If you have been previously evicted in the last 5 years, your application will be denied.

If the application is denied in whole or in part on information received from a consumer credit reporting agency, the applicant(s) will be notified, in writing. The name and address of the agency will be provided to allow the applicant(s) to obtain a copy of the report and correct any information.
